

Even though Sotee and his sister had nothing to eat, they did have hope. They decided to pray and ask God to give them food.

Some time later, their cat came home carrying a fish in its mouth!

Sotee and his sister gave thanks to God before eating their dinner of fish that day.