

Karen peeked out the window and saw several tanks at the end of the street.

*The first bomb exploded with such force,
Kristi was thrown across the room.*

Karen said to Kristi, "You know, Kandi never barked once all the time that we were in hiding."