March Missions Madness

Lost Change for Lost Souls

Wouldn't it be a shame if Jesus came back and there was enough money in your sofa to save one more lost soul? Get your whole congregation involved in finding "lost change" so more lost souls can be saved.

Where can you find "lost change"? Here are some ideas:

- in your sofa
- in dresser drawers
- under the bed
- in your desk drawers
- on the ground or floor
- in your car
- loose inside a lady's purse
- in jars of change you have stashed away

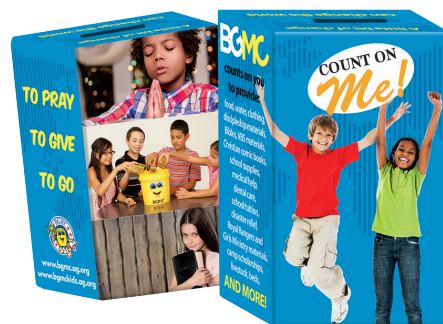

The month of March is selected for this event because National BGMC Day is the second Sunday of the month. Ask all the members of your congregation—kids and adults—to collect money for missions all month long. Give each of them a Buddy Box or Buddy Barrel on the first Sunday of the month, and collect them on the last Sunday of the month.

NOTE: If March doesn't work for you, you can collect Lost Change for Lost Souls any month of the year.

Here are a few suggested steps to make this event a success:

Prior to March:

- Order March Missions Madness posters and put them up all over the church—in halls, stairways, and bulletin boards.
- Order March Missions Madness flyers and the Meeting Critical Needs flyer to hand out to church members once March arrives.
- Order Buddy Boxes and/or Buddy Barrels, enough for everyone in your congregation. The boxes are easier to handle, take up less storage space, and are free. Allow at least two weeks for delivery.
- Order BGMC DVDs or download free videos from bgmc.ag.org > Resources > Videos.
- On the last Sunday in February, make an announcement in church or in the church bulletin or slideshow. This can be simple, such as, “Starting next week: Lost Change for Lost Souls!”

First Sunday of March:

- Make an announcement in the service, in the bulletin, or in the announcement slideshow. (Suggestions on next page.)
- Hand out MMM flyers to everyone in the church and explain what “March Missions Madness: Lost Change for Lost Souls” is.
- Give every person an offering container. Play an exciting BGMC video while passing these out. Videos can be downloaded from bgmc.ag.org. Go to Resources > Videos. The “Count on Me” music videos are fun, upbeat choices.

Second Sunday of March—National BGMC Day:

- Make an announcement in the service, in the bulletin, or in the announcement slideshow. (Suggestions on next page.)
- Hand out the Critical Needs Flyer to each member of the congregation.
- Show the video “What Is BGMC” or any other BGMC video of your choice. Videos can be downloaded from bgmc.ag.org.

Third Sunday of March:

- Remind the congregation that there is only one Sunday left. Let them know how much has come in and how much more is needed to reach your goal. Show another BGMC video to keep the excitement going.

Fourth Sunday of March:

- Show another BGMC video as you collect the final offering. Thank everyone for participating.

First Sunday of April:

- Let everyone know how well the campaign went, and thank them for their support.
- Write the final results on the March Missions Madness posters.

Suggested Announcements

Week 1

Did you know that 25¢ can provide material that will help missionaries lead a lost kid to Jesus? Be a part of March Missions Madness! Start gathering "Lost Change for Lost Souls." Search your house, your car, and your office for "lost change." All donations will go to BGMC.

Week 2

It may sound like madness, but there could be a lost soul in your sofa. Check between the cushions this week. Lost change can be converted into materials that will convert the lost of this world to Jesus! All donations will go to BGMC.

Week 3

Our kids have a heart for missions, and they're collecting "Lost Change for Lost Souls." There could be two souls' worth of change in your washing machine. Maybe there are a dozen souls under the seats of your mini-van. Find all the lost change and put it in your Buddy Box to give to BGMC.

Week 4

Today's the last day! There's still time left for you to find all the lost change in your house, your car, and your office. Bring your Buddy Boxes in so your lost change will bring lost souls to Jesus!
