

Missionary Ian Hall stood at the riverbank and looked at the low trickle of water.

The unbelievers began to laugh and make fun of them because of the lack of water in the river.

Soon the river was full with more than enough water to baptize the believers.