

Winnie the World Skit

Winnie the World provides facts about the different countries of the world. She knows what each country is like, where it is located, and how the people live. For this skit, use the Winnie puppet or print out the Winnie picture onto card stock and attach to a craft stick to create a stick puppet.

Winnie the World Loves China

- WINNIE: (Winnie enters wearing a Chinese hat and carrying a radio while singing her song to the tune of "Here We Go 'Round The Mulberry Bush.") Here we go 'round this great big world, this great big world, this great big world. Here we go 'round this great big world, telling people 'bout Jesus. Hi, everyone.
- INTERVIEWER: Hi, Winnie, it's good to see you. Are you going to talk about China today?
- WINNIE: Yes, I am, and that's why I'm wearing this Chinese hat. China is the fourth largest country in the world. It's a little bit bigger than the United States.
- INTERVIEWER: If China is so big, does it have lots of people?
- WINNIE: China has more people than any other country in the world!
- INTERVIEWER: Wow, that's a lot of people. Do we have any missionaries there?
- WINNIE: We used to many years ago. In 1949 all the missionaries had to leave, and they have not been allowed to go back.
- INTERVIEWER: If we are not allowed to have missionaries, then how will the people hear about Jesus?
- WINNIE: That's why I'm carrying this radio. The people can hear about Jesus through the radio. Christian radio programs are broadcast into China from other countries. People gather around the radios to hear teachings from the Bible.
- INTERVIEWER: Without missionaries, this may be the only preacher that some people ever hear. Do the people in China have Bibles?
- WINNIE: There are very few Bibles in China. Here in America, almost everyone owns their own Bible, but in China, there may be only one Bible per church or group of churches. Everyone takes turns reading it.

INTERVIEWER: I have at least two Bibles. I wish I could give one of mine to the people of China. We forget how blessed we are here in America. With no missionaries and very few Bibles in China, are there many Christians?

WINNIE: God is moving in China. About 30,000 people accept Jesus every day in China!

INTERVIEWER: That's really exciting, Winnie. Even without missionaries, the gospel is still being preached, and people are being saved. We need to pray for China and pray that someday missionaries will be allowed to go back into China. Thank you for coming today, Winnie, and telling us about China. Good-bye.

WINNIE: Good-bye, everyone. There is power in prayer. God needs you to pray. Whenever you see a radio, think of the people in China and pray for them. Sing with me as I go. (She exits singing her song.) Here we go 'round this great big world, this great big world, this great big world. Here we go 'round this great big world, telling people 'bout Jesus.
