

Speedy D. Light Skit

Speedy D. Light represents the Speed the Light missions program for teenagers. Teens raise money to buy vehicles and other equipment for missionaries. These vehicles are often used to transport materials purchased by BGMC. The vehicles take our missionaries wherever they need to go in order to reach the lost. For this skit, use the Speedy puppet or print out the Speedy picture onto card stock and attach to a craft stick to create a stick puppet.

(As the skit begins, Speedy comes racing from behind stage. Screeching car brakes are heard and up pops Speedy. He has a Spanish accent and talks very fast. He hardly stops for a breath. When he gets too excited, he beeps. His catchy key line is, "I am so excited! Beep! Beep!")

Hi! It's me, Speedy D. Light. Have I got a story to tell you today! Many of you have heard about the disasters that happen around the world. Did you know that money you kids give to BGMC and the money teenagers give to Speed the Light helps to meet the needs that happen during disasters? It does! I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

Convoy of Hope goes to places all over the world to help people in disasters by bringing food, water, clothing, and medical supplies. Convoy of Hope trucks travel all over the United States. Many of the trucks were purchased by Speed the Light because teenagers gave to missions! I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

BGMC money helps Convoy of Hope to buy the food, water, and medicine that is needed around the world. When a disaster happens overseas, Convoy of Hope immediately sends food in big boxcar-sized containers to these countries and then flies in people to distribute the food. They do all of this to show the love of Jesus and to show people that Christians care. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

Our missionaries need your help. Each time you give money to BGMC, you are helping the missionaries. Each time you pray, you are helping the missionaries. Will you do your part? I know you will. Well, I'd better go. Remember, when you give to God, your gift keeps going and going and going! I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

(He races off and the sound of squealing tires is heard.)
