

Speedy D. Light Skit

Speedy D. Light represents the Speed the Light missions program for teenagers. Teens raise money to buy vehicles and other equipment for missionaries. These vehicles are often used to transport materials purchased by BGMC. The vehicles take our missionaries wherever they need to go in order to reach the lost. For this skit, use the Speedy puppet or print out the Speedy picture onto card stock and attach to a craft stick to create a stick puppet.

(As the skit begins, Speedy comes racing from behind stage. Screeching car brakes are heard and up pops Speedy. He has a Spanish accent and talks very fast. He hardly stops for a breath. When he gets too excited, he beeps. His catchy key line is, "I am so excited! Beep! Beep!")

Hi, kids, it's me, Speedy D. Light! Have you heard of the country of Ethiopia? Well, I've just been there, so let me tell you what God is doing there. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

Missionaries James and Nancy Ruehmann were traveling way out in the desert country, driving across dry river beds, to get to groups of people who needed to hear about Jesus. This is what missionaries are called to do—go to far off places to spread the gospel. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

While they were out in the desert country, it began to rain and rain. Soon the dry riverbeds were no longer dry—they were free-flowing rivers! How would the missionaries get home? It's a good thing they had their Speed the Light Vehicle. They cranked up their four-wheel-drive and drove right across those rivers and made it home. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

Missionaries are normal people going to far-off places in the world to tell people about Jesus. You kids need to keep your hearts open to God's call to go and be a missionary someday, somewhere in the world. Well, I gotta go! I heard some wonderful things are happening in other parts of the world. See you when I get back! Keep giving to BGMC! I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

(He races off, and the sound of squealing tires is heard.)
