

Speedy D. Light Skit

Speedy D. Light represents the Speed the Light missions program for teenagers. Teens raise money to buy vehicles and other equipment for missionaries. These vehicles are often used to transport materials purchased by BGMC. The vehicles take our missionaries wherever they need to go in order to reach the lost. For this skit, use the Speedy puppet or print out the Speedy picture onto card stock and attach to a craft stick to create a stick puppet.

(As the skit begins, Speedy comes racing from behind stage. Screeching car brakes are heard and up pops Speedy. He has a Spanish accent and talks very fast. He hardly stops for a breath. When he gets too excited, he beeps. His catchy key line is, "I am so excited! Beep! Beep!")

Hi, boys and girls. It's me, Speedy D. Light! As you know, missionaries receive Speed the Light vehicles from the teenagers of the Assemblies of God. Often these vehicles are used to bring people to church, to travel to far-off lands, or even to haul construction materials. Let me tell you a story about what happened in Fiji. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

Fiji is a group of islands. The islands are rugged with lots of dirt roads. Most missionaries don't have vehicles to take them where they need to go. But our missionary in Fiji received a big, six-person, four-wheel-drive SUV. He would put his vehicle on ferry boats that took him to the various islands. Once there, he would drive all over the islands telling people about Jesus. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

Often bad storms called cyclones come to Fiji. These would be like our hurricanes here in America. When this happens, many people are killed because they have nowhere to go to escape the storms. Often the missionaries use their SUVs to drive food, water, blankets, and supplies to people who have been devastated by the cyclones. Through these acts of love, many people give their hearts to Jesus. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

The missionaries also disciple young people by giving them Bibles and Bible lessons and teaching them about God. This is where the kids in America come in. Your offerings provide Bibles, Sunday School materials, even clothing and food to meet the needs of kids all over the world. Every time you give money to BGMC, you are helping our missionaries reach the world. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

I'd better go. I'll be back soon with another story of how God is using Speed the Light and BGMC! Keep giving! You're doing a great job! I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

(He races off, and the sound of squealing tires is heard.)
