

Speedy D. Light Skit

Speedy D. Light represents the Speed the Light missions program for teenagers. Teens raise money to buy vehicles and other equipment for missionaries. These vehicles are often used to transport materials purchased by BGMC. The vehicles take our missionaries wherever they need to go in order to reach the lost. For this skit, use the Speedy puppet or print out the Speedy picture onto card stock and attach to a craft stick to create a stick puppet.

(As the skit begins, Speedy comes racing from behind stage. Screeching car brakes are heard and up pops Speedy. He has a Spanish accent and talks very fast. He hardly stops for a breath. When he gets too excited, he beeps. His catchy key line is, "I am so excited! Beep! Beep!")

Hi, boys and girls! Speedy D. Light here. I'm back to tell you another great story about how God is using Speed the Light, BGMC, and our missionaries around the world to win people to Jesus! I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

Gaylord and Fredna Brown are missionaries in Liberia, Africa. They use their Speed the Light vehicle a lot! In Liberia, it rains from April through November, and the dirt roads get very muddy. Their trips through the country wouldn't be possible without their Speed the Light vehicle. I'm so excited! Beep! Beep!

The Browns go all over the country. Sometimes they haul equipment to show the "Jesus" film. Sometimes they haul supplies to build new churches. They have hauled pastors and Bible school students. They have hauled fruits and vegetables and even chickens and goats in their Speed the Light vehicle. I'm so excited! Beep! Beep!

Because of kids like you giving to BGMC, and because of teenagers giving to Speed the Light, missionaries are able to travel all over and reach many people for Jesus. I'm so excited! Beep! Beep!

Well, I gotta go. There's more to do and see around the world! Keep giving to BGMC! You're doing a great job! I'm so excited! Beep! Beep!

(He races off, and the sound of squealing tires is heard.)
