

Speedy D. Light Skit

Speedy D. Light represents the Speed the Light missions program for teenagers. Teens raise money to buy vehicles and other equipment for missionaries. These vehicles are often used to transport materials purchased by BGMC. The vehicles take our missionaries wherever they need to go in order to reach the lost. For this skit, use the Speedy puppet or print out the Speedy picture onto card stock and attach to a craft stick to create a stick puppet.

(As the skit begins, Speedy comes racing from behind stage. Screeching car brakes are heard and up pops Speedy. He has a Spanish accent and talks very fast. He hardly stops for a breath. When he gets too excited, he beeps. His catchy key line is, "I am so excited! Beep! Beep!")

Hi, boys and girls, I'm back! I'm Speedy D. Light, and I've just returned from hearing all about the work missionary Myrna Sue Wilkins has been doing at the Venezuelan Bible schools. Wow, is she doing a great job teaching young people how to become pastors! Then she takes them out in her Speed the Light van and allows them to minister to the children of Venezuela! God is doing great things! I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

A Bible school is a place where young Christians study to become pastors. Bible schools are important to Venezuela because there is a shortage of pastors. Many Bible schools around the world receive money from BGMC. Without the BGMC money, it would be impossible for the Bible schools to even open their doors. But thanks to you kids and all your offerings to BGMC, the Bible schools are doing well. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

Missionaries are special people. They are called by God to leave their homes in America and to travel to strange lands. They do all this so that they can help reach people for Jesus. Maybe someday God will call you to be a missionary. Many kids who gave to BGMC have become missionaries who now receive BGMC money as adults. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

Well, I've gotta go! I'm off to another country. Remember, every time you give to BGMC, you are helping missionaries around the world. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

(He races off and the sound of squealing tires is heard.)
