

Speedy D. Light Skit

Speedy D. Light represents the Speed the Light missions program for teenagers. Teens raise money to buy vehicles and other equipment for workers. These vehicles are often used to transport materials purchased by BGMC. The vehicles take our workers wherever they need to go in order to reach the lost. For this skit, use the Speedy puppet or print out the Speedy picture onto card stock and attach to a craft stick to create a stick puppet.

(As the skit begins, Speedy comes racing from behind stage. Screeching car brakes are heard and up pops Speedy. He has a Spanish accent and talks very fast. He hardly stops for a breath. When he gets too excited, he beeps. His catchy key line is, "I am so excited! Beep! Beep!")

Hi, boys and girls! It's me, Speedy D. Light. I've been to Vietnam, and boy, are there a lot of people there! The roads are very crowded, so the best way to get around is on a motorcycle. I've just been talking with our worker there. She is doing a great job! I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

Speed the Light provides workers with the transportation they need, and this worker is thankful. Teenagers in America helped buy a motorcycle for her. She rides her motorcycle to the Bible school, where she teaches young Christians how to be new pastors. New churches are being started in Vietnam and new pastors are needed. Bible schools are very important in training men and women to be pastors. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

The worker also rides to a small orphanage to help the staff there. Many children don't have a mom or dad, so orphanages are set up as a place for them to live. BGMC supplies orphanages with beds, food, clothing, kitchen equipment, and everything necessary for helping take care of children in need. Through BGMC, you kids help supply her with the things she needs, both at the Bible school and at the orphanage. Thank you for giving to BGMC. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

Thank you for praying for our workers! Keep giving to BGMC! Together we can help workers reach Vietnam for Jesus. I am so excited! Beep! Beep!

(He races off and the sound of squealing tires is heard.)
